Foreword

Patriotism has been chosen as the key word in preparing the year book. The flag presents the Dedication and Administration, an officer leads the Seniors, a private brings forth the Underclassmen, a tank represents the Activities, and an airplane looks down upon the Views.

That your many happy days may be renewed in your mind is the wish of

The Mirror Board of 1941

In an attempt to reveal our deeply felt appreciation for having, as a member of our faculty, a man with such a well-rounded personality, we would like to pay tribute to Mr. Schilling. Because of his unselfish efforts and devotion toward the school, he is held in high esteem as the assistant principal, a teacher and assistant football and basketball coach. It is with just pride that the class of '41 dedicates this issue of The Mirror to

EDITORIAL STAFF OF THE MIRROR

First Row—M. Murray, A. Shoffner, B. Plowman, A. Crawford, N. Smith. Second Row—C. Kremkau, Miss Boles, Miss Winslow, Mrs. Beam, E. Bullers. Third Row—N. Clark, C. Weiss, J. Alexis, H. Mowrey.

EDITORIAL STAFF OF THE MIRROR

Under the supervision of Rachel C. Brooks, the first Mirror was published in 1909. In that year, only one number was printed. Since that time, three magazines and the commencement number have been issued yearly.

This year, publications were made for Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, and Commencement. The Poetry division is under Miss Winslow's supervision; the Literary department under Miss Boles; and the general staff activity under Mrs. Beam.

Bonnie Jane Plowman was Editor-in-Chief this year and had a difficult job. It is the editor's duty to assign work to the staff, arrange for material to be used, see that the material is in and typed, and that the printer has the material in ample time.

The Literary editors correct the stories used. The poetry editor selects the poems. Classnote editors must always be "on their toes" for unusual class-room events of interest. The exchange editor studies magazines from other schools and, besides conducting a column, suggests improvements for The Mirror. The columnist has one of the most difficult jobs because "Groundhog Gab" must be timely, interesting, well-written, and "to the point." It is the duty of the typists to type the material as it should appear in the actual magazine.

Following is the Editorial Staff and the position of each member:

Editor-in-Chief .....Bonnie Jane Plowman
Literary Editor .....Agnes Shoffner
Literary Co-editor ..Annie Laurie Crawford
Literary Co-editor .....Ryta Stuchell
Poetry Editor .....Marjorie Murray
Columnist .....Jerome Alexis
Classnote Editor .....Norma Smith
Classnote Co-editor .....Carol Kremkau
Classnote Co-editor .....Helen Mowrey
Exchange Editor .....Elsie Bullers
Faculty Adviser .....Margaret C. Boles
Faculty Adviser .....Irene Beam
Faculty Adviser, Poetry .....Elinor Winslow
Typist .....Naomi Clark
Typist .....Clifford Weiss

BUSINESS STAFF OF THE MIRROR

One of the least publicized organizations in Punxsutawney High School is the Business Staff of The Mirror. This organization is one of the most unfamiliar ones on the part of the student body.

The members must call on the merchants of Punxsutawney who supply The Mirror with advertisements. Before each publication, all advertisements must be checked to see if there are any changes to be made. After each publication, The Mirror must be delivered.

All the members are chosen early in the school year by Mr. Boyd. Tom Kelso, Business Manager, assisted by Lois Bell, Assistant Business Manager, and Donald Barkley, Circulating Manager, are busy all year round.

Third Row—Mr. Welder, D. Kordes, N. Passerell, B. Roberts, J. Crissinger, J. Previte, D. DeVoe, D. Gaskin, D. Bidwell, F. Lorenzo, B. Lyon, Mr. Heil.

THE HI-LIGHTS STAFF

Our school newspaper, the Hi-Lights, has made remarkable strides of advancement. The Torch was begun by Miss Boles' English III classes in 1924; but, after continuing periodically for five years, was discontinued because of financial depression. Later, the Press Club was organized with the purpose of submitting to the Punxsutawney Spirit and the Punxsutawney News articles about the current events of our school. It also served as a publicity agency for our various school activities.

From '36 until the fall of '39, the Press Club published issues of the Hi-Lights bi-monthly. At that time, a Journalism class was organized, the students of which automatically became members of the Hi-Lights staff. The work was originally supervised by Miss McLeavy, but the responsibility now has been assumed by Mr. Welder.

Journalism is a very interesting one-semester subject. Before entering the class, one must be recommended by his or her English teacher. The students are graded, not only on their ability, but also their general class interest and contributions to the paper.

After becoming acquainted with the students, Mr. Welder chooses capable students to have charge of various divisions of the paper, such as the editorials, features, columns, sports, and club news. The cartoonist and photographers are not necessarily Journalism students.

THE MIRROR

THE CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club of P. H. S., under the supervision of Mr. Straitiff, does the photographic work for the Hi-Lights. At the club meetings, held twice a month, the members discuss and experiment with the different phases of photography. At special meetings speakers are invited to address the club about a specific part of photography. The members of the club have the privilege of using the dark-room during study periods and after school.

For the last two years the club has been holding an annual contest. Each member of the club submits pictures, which are grouped according to their subjects. The best picture is then selected from each group.

The officers of the club are: President, Francis Lorenzo; Vice-President, Helen Mowrey; Secretary-Treasurer, Bob Hogan.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club, Le Cercle Francais, meets on the fourth Monday of every month in the home of one of the club's members.

This club is open to anyone in the Frencn II classes who is interested in increasing his knowledge of the French language and of the French people and their customs. The business meetings of the club are conducted in French, French games are played, and French songs are sung. This club is sponsored by Miss Pantall. Its officers are: Don Weed, President; Julia Lias, Vice-President; Paul Kennedy, Secretary, and Ruby Boyer, Treasurer.

THE LATIN CLUB

The chief aim of the Latin Club of P. H. S. is to acquaint its members with ancient Roman customs. The club, under the supervision of Miss Brown, holds its meetings monthly at the homes of the members, where various Latin games are played. At the beginning of the year each member is given a Latin name which he keeps as long as he belongs to the club. An annual banquet is held at the end of the school term.

Perhaps, the most accomplished feat the club does is publishing Fulmen Iovis, a newspaper written in Latin.

The officers of the club are: President, Jack Troutman; Vice-President, Irwin Simpson; Secretary, Agnes Shoffner; Treasurer, Betty Lloyd.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

In the twenty-four years of recorded P. H. S. dramatics history, the ideals which inspired the first interest in playcraft have never failed to be maintained.

The high school's assiduous actors were first organized into a club in 1927 as the P. H. S. Thespian Society.

At the monthly meetings, the members discuss current Broadway and Hollywood productions. Each year since 1935, the Punx'y Thespian Society has sent delegates to the annual Dramatics Conference at Penn State College. When the representatives journey to State College they attend dramatic clinics, inspect various displays, receive instruction in such things as lighting, producing, costuming, and mounting plays, and attend a performance.

At the present time there are thirty-four members in the club. The officers are as follows: Charlotte Long, President; Don Meneeley, Vice-President; Madalyn Bidwell, Secretary.

The Thespian Stage Crew members play a role equally as important as the members of Thespian Society. For each play presented Miss Boles drills the stage crew as intensely as the players themselves. They prepare the stage settings.

THE PLAY CAST

Every year the Punxsutawney High School Thespian Society presents its annual High School Play. This year's play, What a Life, the story of Henry Aldrich's trials and troubles, was generally accepted as the most amusing comedy in years. Under the leadership of Margaret C. Boles, Thespian advisor, Punxsutawney's theatrical talent shone forth in the brilliant performance of every member of the cast. One quality of a Thespian is cooperation. This cast showed utmost consideration for this on and off the stage at all times. Although the actors and actresses had rehearsed their individual lines many times together, they showed immediate interest in the voices and actions of their colleagues ,thus centering all attention on the person speaking or acting. Although we had seen What a Life presented on the New York stage, we believe that Punxsutawney received an equally brilliant performance from its own talent.

GENERAL STAGE CREW
First Row—Mr. Fullerton, G. Weiss, P. Jordan, M. Barnett. Second Row—G. Moot, N. Passerell, H. Grube, W. Bowers, G. Domb.

GENERAL STAGE CREW

The General Stage Crew is an invaluable organization in our school. Mr. Fullerton is the faculty supervisor and Herman Grube is the general manager. This year, for the first time in its history, the group elected a secretary, which position Glenn Domb holds.

The Stage Crew, whose purpose is to serve the school, has the responsibility of maintaining and operating the stage equipment. The divisions of specialized work include the switchboard and lights, scenery, and curtains. Each member is responsible for the work in one of the various departments.

From the large number of students requesting membership, the boys in the crew vote for others to take the place of graduates. It is a continuous organization. That is, the membership is on a class basis with an attempt to maintain experienced members from previous years.

The General Stage Crew members take great pride in serving the school and are always ready to cooperate in any task, large or small, which involves the stage or the auditorium.

THE USHER'S CLUB

The Usher's Club is comparatively new to Punxsutawney High School although the Ushers have established themselves as a necessity since the building of the new High School. These whitecoated lads give aid to everyone in finding their seats or their location when in the new auditorium, in the new gymnasium, or at the football field. Heavy responsibility hangs upon each of these boys. Each of them knows the duty he has to perform and he never shirks it. They are unpaid workers except for a two-dollar contribution each year for their new uniform fund. None of them benefit individually. These boys in white coats are a great aid to the visitors to Punx'y High. They proved their efficiency during the P. S. M. A. Convention.

Left to right—W. Dunmire, A. Wolfe, J. Depp, L. Benson, A. M. Johnson, R. Dickey
G. London, D. London.

CHEERLEADERS

Throughout the entire year, the cheerleaders of P. H. S. have shown their loyalty and fine sportsmanship. They have done a very good job of cheering. They were at the football games in rain or snow to lead the crowd in cheers and the team on to victory. At the basketball games they were also very active. We are sorry to lose two faithful senior cheerleaders, Wanda Dunmire and Anna Marie Johnson.

Miss Purnell is the faculty advisor of this group of six girls and two boys. Wanda Dunmire is the head cheerleader; the other cheerleaders are: Anna Lou Wolfe, Ruth Dickey, Anna Marie Johnson, June Depp, Lillian Benson, Guy and Don London.

MAJORETTES

For the second year in the history of P. H. S., the band has been led by snappy drum majorettes. This year, four expert twirlers were chosen from a large number of contestants. They were: June Evans, Margaret Cook, Jean Handyside, and Frances Ellenberger. "Posey" Morgan was responsible for their training. During football season, the majorettes were always on hand, giving dash and color to the band. They presented some very fine twirling and acrobatic displays. In addition to this, they also participated in the annual P. H. S. Band Concert.

These girls, through their excellent handling of the baton, have won the praise of many. Let us hope that they continue the good work!

FOOTBALL TEAM

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

No school is complete without at least one athletic activity. Punxsutawney High School is extremely fortunate in that it has four major ones—football, basketball, track, and junior basketball. Perhaps the favorite of these sports is the season opener, football. Punxsutawney has just reason to be proud of its alumni footballers and its present team of "pigskin luggers." Under the head football coach, Joseph V. Harrick, and his two able assistants, Howard Schilling and George West, this year's team, although it has played a tough schedule, has made an exceptionally good reputation for the school. Some of the team's outstanding players have already received high praise for such a brilliant season; but, to those who ran the interference and received little credit for their hard work, we wish to say, "Thanks, fellows, for another grand season of good, clean sportsmanship."

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Led by the high-scoring of "Red" Heitzenrater, Fred Lazorcak, and Dick Swarm, the basketball team came out again this year on the black side of the ledger with thirteen victories in nineteen games and outscored their opponents 588 to 503. The high spots of the season were the Curwensville game, when the Golden Tide came from behind to win by the heartbreaking score of 20-19; the first Brookville game, in which the two teams ran neck to neck until the last quarter; and the second DuBois game, when the Chucks avenged, by a 44-28 score, an earlier defeat at the hands of the Beavers.

Although the Chucks will lose the services of Swarm and Verostic through graduation, a good season next year is in prospect for Mr. Clark's charges. Eight lettermen will return, among whom there will be Lynn Heitzenrater, who was among the first five high scorers of the league, and Billy Lavosky, who had a fine .780 average in the foul-shooting department.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The junior varsity basketball team had a very successful season this year, winning nine and losing three of their games. The J.V.'s are proud of their record of having only one team, Indiana, score more than twenty points against them. The leading scorer again this year was Dixon Willmoth, but Guzzy, Fry, and Guignet also deserve much credit for the team's fine showing. Mr. Schilling, the J.V. coach, is to be commended for the fine work which he has done in teaching the fundamentals of the game to the team.

GOLF CLUB

The golf team is another of P. H. S. athletic clubs. The members of the Punx'y High team belong to a league, which consists of members from DuBois, Brookville, Clearfield, Sandy, and Corsica. Four boys play on each team. The Punx'y club won second place in the league last year and are in second place this year, which is quite a record. Although there aren't a great many players in the club it is hoped that more students will take an interest in the game. Mr. Caylor is the team's adviser.

Funair, Mr. Straitiff, Mr. Harrick, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Schilling, G. Williams, J. McGonagle, M. Fetterman, L. Stello.

THE VARSITY CLUB

If you happened to hear some boy saying that he wore the wrong sweater to the meeting last night and had a very hard time getting into the meeting, you will know that he went to the Varsity Club meeting.

This club is made up entirely of lettermen. Every member must have won his letter in some sport of Punxsutawney High School.

This is the organization that buys those snappy red sweaters the senior boys so proudly display.

Under the supervision of Mr. Harrick, Mr. Straitiff as financial advisor, Bill Corrine as President, Bruce Snedden as Vice President, Richard Swarm as Secretary, and Steve Wozniak as Treasurer have done a very fine job in managing the club this year.

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR

The High School Choir, organized in 1939, is composed of seventy members. To form this group, Mr. Kester, head of the music department, combined the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs.

Its officers are as follows: President, Dale Startzell; Vice-President, Bonnie Enterline; Secretary, Margaret Morell; Accompanist, Patricia Gahagen.

Throughout the school term the choir willingly offers its services. It has sung in the various churches of the community.

The Westminster College Choir's performance here was sponsored by this organization.

In the last of May it presented, for the first time, a spring musical festival.

It also furnished the music for the Baccalaureate service.

Since it has been organized, the choir has been highly successful. We are deeply indebted to it for its unselfish services.

Smith, A. Schwenk, M. Krucelyak.

THE ORCHESTRA

If you have some ability to play a flute, piano, cello, bass viol, clarinet, or trombone, and have a desire to be in the orchestra, just see Mr. Kester. You may not be able to play well enough to secure a position in this organization, but Mr. Kester will instruct you until you play well enough to become a member.

Up until this year, the orchestra played for dismissals. Now it appears for chapel and for various activities for which its services have been requested.

This year's officers are as follows:

CECIL PAYNE .....President

HARRY STARTZELL .....Secretary

PATRICIA GAHAGAN .....Librarian

THE BAND

From the minute the band marched onto Harmon Field in the Clarion night game, it was very successful in all its undertakings. In addition to furnishing music and drills, many of which were unique in the use of flashlights and fires, at all home games, the local music-makers had the questionable pleasure (due to bad weather) of attending the Curwensville game in that town. The band was also honored by being invited to play at the Clarion State Teachers College-Indiana State Teachers College football game at Clarion. After several months of intense practice, it presented its annual concert in February with Dr. A. D. Davenport, of Aliquippa, as guest conductor. Perhaps the greatest pleasure the group enjoyed, however, was entertaining the 196-piece Mid-West District Band in March, in which a number of its members participated. Everything considered, this year was probably the most successful of the band's ten-year history. Most of the credit for this fine work is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Kester, its director.

This club is under the direction and supervision of Miss Edna Pifer. In December the girls helped in the work for the Christmas exhibit. At Christmas they gave a basket of food to a needy family. In April they sent delegates to the State Convention of the High Schools' Economic Clubs in Pittsburgh. In April the club held a style show and they helped in the work for the spring exhibit.

The Club officers for '40 and '41 are Betty Simpson, President; Edith Hutmire, Vice-President; Jean Barner, Secretary; Lois Mahan, Treasurer, and Irene Simbeck, News Reporter.

Meetings are held twice a month.

THE AVIATION CLUB

The chief aim of the Aviation Club of P. H. S. is to acquaint the members with the different phases of aviation. The club, which is under the supervision of Mr. Mitchell, holds its meetings once each month. At these meetings the members discuss questions concerning aviation. On special occasions a guest speaker is invited. An excellent display of model airplanes, built by members of the club, was shown this year in the school library.

The officers of the club are: President, Dan Jones; Vice-President, Louise Henry; Secretary, Frances Corey; Treasurer, Everett Bullers.

Miss Mabel Monroe is faculty advisor of the Commercial Club with Mrs. Reed, Miss Gotwald, and Mr. West as her assistants. William Roberts is president of this club, which is the largest in P. H. S. This year, the club took out a membership in the Punxsutawney Chamber of Commerce. The club sent boys as representatives to each of the meetings. They would then report on the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, which they found very interesting.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Juniors and Sophomores

The Commerical Club holds one meeting every month. The programs this year have been varied—talks by business men, movies, skits on salesmanship presented by the members, and other things of educational value and interest have been given. Occasionally, social meetings are held, at which refreshments are served, and dancing and other entertainment is enjoyed.

Any Junior or Senior commercial student may become a member of the Commercial Club. Also, all student teachers belong to it. Twice a year, the new student teachers are initiated into the club.

The Science Club is one of the largest organifiations in the high school. The club is under the supervision of Mr. Sherk.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month. Various types of programs are offered for the benefit of the members.

The students themselves often have charge of the meetings. At such times they conduct experiments, present topics, and hold quiz contests.

SCIENCE CLUB

Juniors and Sophomores

This year the Camera Club willingly presented a program in which they demonstrated the developing of film.

Motion pictures, depicting the various phases of science, are shown to the club.

At other meetings the speakers address the group with subjects which deal with modern scientific progress.

The principal purpose of this organization is to convey to its members a better knowledge of scientific problems and to help them become familiar with today's developments.

The Science Department this year presented a chapel play, It's Right Here for You, which consisted mainly of experiments.

It is customary to send delegates to the annual convention of the Junior Academy of Science.

One semi-social meeting is held during the year. At this time everyone takes part in games and contests.

At the end of the school term the Commercial and Science Clubs hold a joint banquet.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y throughout the school year has sought "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." It has definitely succeeded in this aim, for during the year it has assisted in several civic projects, and has won the State Bible Study Contest. The club is also very active socially, sponsoring several tureen dinners and dances throughout the year. Its social program will be climaxed by its annual spring formal in which it cooperates with the Hi-Y. The club, whose members are taken from the Junior and Senior classes, meets every Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A. Miss Ida Thomas, known to all the girls as "Tommy," is the advisor for the club. Its officers are: Charlotte Long, President; Anna Marie Johnson, Vice-President; Marjory Lyon, Secretary; Jean Huey, Treasurer.

SOPHOMORE TRI-HI-Y

The Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y, although only two years old, has become very active through the ambition and whole-hearted support of its members. The meetings of the club, which are held every Thursday night in the Y. M. C. A., are devoted to Bible Study, speakers, social programs, and the planning of worthwhile civic projects. This year the club assisted with the Infantile Paralysis Drive, the District Band Convention, and distributed baskets to needy families at Christmas time. The officers are: Marjorie Moore, President; Darlene Reid, Vice-President; Joy Knarr, Secretary; Nellie Farrimond, Treasurer. Miss Davis is the club's advisor.

HI-Y

The officers, who were chosen for '40 and '41 in the Hi-Y are: Raymond Graff, President; Anthony Nace, Vice-President; David Bidwell, Secretary; and Andy Hoy, Treasurer. During the year the Hi-y had tureen dinners with the Tri-Hi-Y, held two dances, and helped in the "Y" campaign. In the month of February the club began Bible Study. In March, the boys helped Mr. Kester with the members of the district band. In May the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y held their annual spring dance.

So Long

It's getting old, it's slang I know,
"So long, now, it's time to go"
It looked so strange that, as I wrote it,
I wondered if I'd dare to quote it.

What does it mean?—Well, not good-bye,
It means, "We're friends now, you and I,
Perhaps we'll meet again tomorrow."
This parting has no trace of sorrow.

As Freshmen, first, we knew these halls,
Four years to go within these walls!
So long it seemed we scarcely knew
If wit and will could pull us through.

So long the lessons we had to learn,
So long the tests on every turn.
So long, at first, but we kept the pace,
And now we've come to the end of the race.

Our lessons for living are over and done,
And now we find out that our life's just begun.
We've plenty to learn yet. We're just going strong.
And thus for the present, we'll just say "So long."
